

Keith Schiller, Esq., of the Schiller Law Group, a PLC, of Alamo, California, has greater than 45 years of experience with taxation, tax compliance, and estate and business succession planning. Keith works with clients, judges and tax practitioners throughout California, consulting on estate planning; trust administration; estate tax, gift tax, GST tax compliance (review of returns, audits, appeals and Tax Court), and applications for private letter ruling requests with a variety of estate, GST, gift and income tax issues or secure additional time to file supplemental returns as a result of missed elections in the filing of tax returns.

Keith is the author of the award-winning reference book, Art of the Estate Tax Return – Estate Planning At The Movies®, now in its Second Edition and published by Innovative Estate Planning Productions, Inc. The book reveals Keith's best practice-pointers, his insights from co-teaching with the IRS for 17 years, and practical recommendations from over 25 leading practitioners across the country who contributed to the book. Keith has taught estate tax return and audit practice with IRS estate tax attorneys, group managers, and appeals officers since 1996.

Keith is a member of the Advisory Board for Bloomberg, BNA's Estates, Gifts and Trusts Journal and a member of the Consulting Board for the Leimberg Information Services, Inc.® Newsletter. He has taught over 15 courses for the CalCPA Education Foundation and received the 2000 and 2010-2011 awards for Outstanding Course Materials.

Keith is a certified specialist in Taxation Law and Estate Planning, Probate, and Trust Law by the State Bar of California.

From the standpoint of civic benefit, Keith chaired the Yosemite License Plate Committee and lobbied passage of the law that has raised in excess of $44 million for the preservation of Yosemite National Park and California conservation.
